

ARTICLE III

Reserved Rights of the District

- 1
2
3
4
5 A. The intention of this Article is to provide that the District retains all rights, powers, authority,
6 duties and responsibilities to direct, manage, and control conferred upon and vested in it by
7 the Laws and Constitution of the United States and the State of California. In delineating the
8 reserved rights of the District, it is not the intention of the parties to detract from or diminish
9 in any way the statutory right of the Association to represent unit members under the Act.
10
11 B. It is agreed that all matters which are beyond the scope of negotiations as provided in 12 Government Code, Section 3543.2 and also all rights, powers and authority which are not 13 limited by the terms of this Agreement are reserved to the District. Such reserved rights shall 14 include, but are not limited to, the exclusive right to:
15
16 1. Determine its organization; determine the kinds and levels of services to be provided
17 and the methods and means of providing them;
18
19 2. Maintain the efficiency of District operations; build, move, or modify facilities;
20 establish budget procedures and determine budgetary allocations; determine methods
21 of raising revenue; contract out work;
22
23 3. Determine the times and hours of operation; determine staffing patterns and the 24 number and kinds of personnel required; direct the work of employees; hire, classify,
25 assign, evaluate, promote, discipline (pursuant to Education Code, Section 44944),
26 and terminate employees;
27
28 4. Establish educational policies, goals and objectives; determine the curriculum, ensure 29 the rights and educational opportunities of students.
30
31 C. The exercise of the foregoing rights, powers, authority, duties and responsibilities by the 32 District, the adoption of policies, rules, regulations, and practices in furtherance thereof, and 33 the use of judgment and discretion in connection therewith, shall be limited only by the 34 specific express terms of this Agreement, by statutory rights of unit members and/or the
35 Association, and then only to the extent such specific and express terms are in conformance
36 with law. If there is a direct conflict between the aforementioned reserved rights of 37 management and the specific and express provisions of other articles of this Agreement, the 38 language of the latter shall prevail.
39
40 D. The District retains its right to amend, modify, or rescind policies and practices referred to 41 in this Agreement for the duration of an emergency. An emergency shall be defined as those
42 unforeseen circumstances which substantially interrupt or threaten to interrupt the normal
43 District operation: natural disasters, epidemics, riots, police actions, national emergencies,
44 local exigencies.
45
46